LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Sarah Bondurant, of Dublin, Texas, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Gilbert, 717 Second avenue n. w. J. B. Ferguson is on a bicycle trip to Hagerstown.

Mrs. Packston died at her home near Montvale yesterday morning shortly after 12 o'clock, and will be buried in the cemetery at Montvale to-day at noon.

A. D. Englewood served notice yesterday on a number of his personal friends that he would leave to-morrow for a trip through Europe. It was suggested that, perhaps, he would go via the "Fishing Line," but he disclaimed any such intention.

Miss Lucie Richardson, of Cloverdale, Botetourt county, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Capt. W. C. Overby, of this city.

E. H. Wolf, of the Roanoke Machine Works' time office, has secured a vacation of ten days, and left last night for Hagerstown, where he will visit relatives and friends.

Judge G. W. Richardson, of Wytheville, was in the city yesterday.

W. H. McTruder will leave Monday for a trip to Baltimore, where he will recuperate.

L. L. Powell's horse fell with him on Melrose boulevard yesterday, but no serious damage was done to the horse or Mr. Powell.

Mrs. M. E. Biggs, of Front Royal, sister of J. M. Seymour, arrived in the city yesterday, and will spend several weeks.

Miss Bessie and Lelia Cooke, of Hollis Institute, are visiting the family of L. H. Cooke, Ninth avenue and First street s. e.

R. S. Roberts left yesterday for the Montgomery White Sulphur Springs. He will probably accept the position as chief clerk during the season at that resort.

THE STEAMER ROANOKE

To be launched in the Roanoke River This Morning.

A number of young men employed at the Roanoke Machine Works have constructed a steamboat which will be launched at the mouth of Tinker creek in Roanoke river, this morning at 10 o'clock.

The boat is thirty feet long and will be propelled by a three-horse power engine. It was designed and constructed by W. A. Rudy. The engine was built by the Shoffner boys.

The boat is a neat and handsome pattern and is propelled by two side wheels. It will be called "The Roanoke."

The crew is: W. A. Rudy, pilot; J. B. Stevenson, engineer; C. J. Shoffner, fireman; and T. Bousack, assistant fireman. The boys expect to have some rare sport with "The Roanoke" on the Fourth.

A Lawn Festival.

The lawn festival of the Lee Street Methodist Church still continues to grow in favor. Last night an immense throng was in attendance, and the occasion was enlivened by music, which, added to the pretty girls, proved altogether too seductive for the boys' pocket books. The affair will end Saturday night, and the indications are that the church will net a handsome profit from the entertainment.

Caught in a New Building.

Officers Brown and Lock raided an uncompleted building on Fourth avenue n. w. last night and captured G. T. Taylor and Sallie Jones. The latter was but a young girl and gave her age at 13. Taylor put up $20 for their appearance before the mayor this morning. Another couple came near being caught, but getting sight of the police made their escape.
